

Asian Age, 18 January 2009

Maoists kill 6 cops in Jharkhand

Ranchi, Jan. 17: Six security personnel were killed in a landmine blast by Maoist rebels while seven rebels were arrested in a separate incident in Jharkhand on Saturday, a police officer said. The landmine was detonated between Manika and Patki on the national highway. "Six security personnel, who were on long range patrolling, were killed in a landmine blast by Maoists. The killed security personnel include the officer in charge of Manika police station Kamal Chandra," a police official said