

The Hindu, 13 September 2005

Indian, U.S. navies begin salvage exercise

Kochi: The Indian Navy and the United States Navy started off 'SALVEX', a bilateral salvage exercise off Kochi, on Monday. It will go on till September 23.

The Hindu, 15 September 2005

"High-performance aircraft overloaded the pilot with so much sensor information" (Arun Prakash)

Bangalore: Chief of the Naval Staff Admiral Arun Prakash has urged flight surgeons to remain vigilant to ensure that the mental and physical capabilities of the aircrew are not over-stretched and their safety not jeopardized, even as aerospace technology marches on.

The Hindu, 15 September 2005

Close watch on Gwadar port: Navy Chief

Bangalore: Dismissing reports of Pakistan building a naval base at Gwadar, on its Baluchistan coast, Chief of the Naval Staff Admiral Arun Prakash on Wednesday said it is only a commercial port being built with Chinese assistance.